ADJOURNMENT

On motion of Senator Aikin the Senate at 11:50 o'clock a.m. adjourned until 11:00 o'clock a.m. Monday, February 24, 1975.

TWENTY-FOURTH DAY (Monday, February 24, 1975)

The Senate met at 11:00 o'clock a.m., pursuant to adjournment, and was called to order by the President.

The roll was called and the following Senators were present: Adams, Aikin, Andujar, Braecklein, Brooks, Clower, Creighton, Doggett, Farabee, Gammage, Hance, Harrington, Harris, Jones, Kothmann, Lombardino, Longoria, Mauzy, McKinnon, McKnight, Meier, Mengden, Moore, Patman, Santiesteban, Schwartz, Sherman, Snelson, Traeger and Williams.

Absent-excused: Ogg.

A quorum was announced present.

The Reverend John P. Ellwanger, Pastor, Hope Lutheran Church of Austin offered the invocation as follows:

Lord, we know You as the Giver of all good things. We praise You for this new day and all the blessings of it. We thank You for the time and space in which You have given us life. It's a good time to be alive in so many ways and Texas is such a great place to live, and yet, at the same time, these are difficult and challenging times and even our wonderful state has its share of problems and needs. Help us all as citizens of Texas, we pray, to be more aware of how we can best use the time You have allotted to us to better the quality of life for all with whom we share this time and space. Now to this end, we pray that You would mightily bless this Senate and all our governing officials. Grant that all the deliberations and actions of this session may proceed to Your glory and the welfare of all the people of Texas. We pray in the name of Christ, our Lord. Amen.

On motion of Senator Aikin and by unanimous consent, the reading of the Journal of the proceedings of Thursday, February 20, was dispensed with and the Journal was approved.

LEAVE OF ABSENCE

Senator Ogg was granted leave of absence for today on account of important business on motion of Senator McKinnon.

Absent-excused: Ogg.

The President laid before the Senate on its second reading and passage to engrossment:

S.B. 194, A bill to be entitled An Act amending Section 21.301 of the Texas Education Code relating to suspension of pupils from school by the superintendent or board of trustees of the school district; providing for notice to the pupil and hearings; and declaring an emergency.

The bill was read second time.

Senator Snelson offered the following Committee Amendment to the bill:

Amend S.B. No. 194 by striking all language below the enacting clause and substituting in lieu thereof the following:

Section 1. That Sec. 21.301 of the Texas Education Code be amended to read as follows:

Sec. 21.301 (A) The superintendent of any school district may suspend from the privileges of the schools any pupil recommended for immediate suspension by the principal or other person in charge of the school in which the pupil is attending, but such suspension shall not extend beyond the next ensuing meeting of the board of trustees. Before any pupil shall be suspended by a superintendent pursuant to this subsection, the pupil shall be given oral or written notice of the reasons for the proposed suspension and if the pupil denies the validity of the reasons for the proposed suspension, he shall be given an opportunity to present his side of the matter in a hearing before the superintendent.

(B) The board of trustees of any school district may suspend from the privileges of the schools for a period of up to one year any pupil whose conduct is determined to be incorrigible by the Board of Trustees (any pupil found guilty of incorrigible conduct, but such suspension shall not extend beyond the current term of school). Before any pupil shall be suspended by a Board of Trustees pursuant to this subsection, the pupil shall be given written notice of the reasons for the proposed suspension and an opportunity to contest the validity of such reasons in a hearing before the Board of Trustees. At such hearing a pupil may be represented by counsel and may present whatever evidence he feels necessary to refute any of the reasons for the proposed suspension. A pupil may also cross-examine any witnesses testifying before the Board of Trustees in favor of the proposed suspension.

Sec. 2. The importance of this legislation and the crowded condition of the calendar creates an emergency and an imperative public necessity that the Constitutional Rule requiring bills to be read on three several days be suspended, and this rule is hereby suspended, and that this act take effect and be in force from and after its passage, and it is so enacted.

The Committee Amendment was read.

Senator Schwartz offered the following amendment to the Committee Amendment to the bill:

Amend Section 1 of S.B. 194 by adding thereto a new subsection (c) to read as follows:

“(c) No pupil shall be suspended unless it is determined that the presence of the pupil constitutes a danger to persons or property or a threat of disrupting the academic process.”

The amendment to the Committee Amendment was read and was adopted.

The Committee Amendment as amended was then adopted.

On motion of Senator Snelson and by unanimous consent, the caption was amended to conform to the body of the bill as amended.

The bill as amended was then passed to engrossment.

SENATE BILL 194 ON THIRD READING

Senator Snelson moved that Senate Rule 68 and the Constitutional Rule requiring bills to be read on three several days be suspended and that S.B. 194 be placed on its third reading and final passage.

The motion prevailed by the following vote: Yeas 30, Nays 0.

Yeas: Adams, Aikin, Andujar, Braecklein, Brooks, Clower, Creighton, Doggett, Farabee, Gammage, Hance, Harrington, Harris, Jones, Kothmann, Lombardino, Longoria, Mauzy, McKinnon, McKnight, Meier, Mengden, Moore, Patman, Santiesteban, Schwartz, Sherman, Snelson, Traeger and Williams.

Absent-excused: Ogg.
